

Shibuya mayor says, “Don't come for Halloween”

1 Tokyo's Shibuya Ward mayor Ken Hasebe said in a press conference, “Don't come to Shibuya for Halloween”. He gave two reasons.

2 First, for people's safety. Last year on October 29th, there was a fatal accident in Seoul. Over 150 people were killed in the crowd crush in Itaewon entertainment district after tens of thousands gathered to join the Halloween event. The mayor said, “Such an accident could also happen in Shibuya.

[Q4 私達は、人々に渋谷に来てほしくありません] if they're only coming for Halloween."

3 Second, for the discipline of Shibuya. Recently, it has been a big problem that many people, both foreign tourists and the Japanese, drink alcohol on the streets in Shibuya. They have no money to go to restaurants or izakaya, so they buy alcohol at the stores and drink on the streets. Some people have fights and throw away large amounts of trash. They are spoiling the public morals of Shibuya.

4 Shibuya is a popular district among young people. The scramble crossing is an iconic place. The ward will ban drinking around Shibuya Station from the evening of October 27th to November 1st. “Shibuya is not a Halloween party venue,” Mayor Hasebe said.

Hi! How have you been?

Halloween is coming soon.

Do you remember that a fatal accident happened in my country last October?

Many people came to the Halloween parade in Itaewon, and 150 were crushed to death.

We were sad. My friends and I are having a small Halloween party at home.

How about you? Will you go to Shibuya for Halloween this year?

I have one more question. When I was a child, I wore a witch’s costume for Halloween.

Did you wear any costume for Halloween when you were a child?

Your friend, Hijin
